RELOADED

A stylized illustration of a dragon in shades of blue and yellow. The dragon is depicted in a dynamic, almost abstract pose, with its head turned back and its body curving downwards. It has a textured, scale-like appearance with white and red diamond-shaped patterns on its blue sections. The dragon's tail is long and tapers to a point, ending in a yellow arrowhead. The entire illustration is set against a dark red background with a faint yellow grid pattern.
